HORIZONS 1970

Dear Pat,

God - this is gonna really be long cuz we've had some great times this year! you + me + Zoë are about the dumbest people in the class but it's been fun! I really do want to go to Granby next year because I'm sick of working on Saturday + I can't see being good and I don't wanna be here in my senior year cuz I can't see studying as hard as I'd have to! But I wanna come back next year cuz I'm gonna miss you + all those times we skipped. Remember that time after our Geometry re-exam when we skipped German and we went into the bathroom and had a cigarette! God - that was funny as hell! I'm really glad I got to know ya so well this year cuz it's been fun as hell! Don't forget Eng. class when we got all the likes! and Masterson always saying, "Patsy and Kate!" and us just sitting there cussing the whole time! and remember Biology (study hall)! Parker really got mad at me + Esa! all's she said was "Esa + Kate, please stop talking! And Remember the time you, Dole + me just walked out of Lab and never went back! that was really a riot!

Lauder

And Parker said she could give me 10 demerits for being rude! Sure! Do ya remember the time I told Zoë I was pregnant + she really believed it! How about Germaman class + Holmes! It was really great being in all your classes! I wish that I was in your gym class so I could've skipped that w/ya! God - remember Royer! And the time we didn't go into class until 10 after 9! You're lucky that Bennett isn't gonna be here next year cuz her study hall's a big hassle! Remember all those art classes when we never did anything but talk! Remember all the times you and me got "a little help from our friends" on a few things! I sure → hope I can get some of that kind of help from people at Granby! God - right now I don't wanna go to Granby cuz I'll really miss the damn good times we had here raising hell! But since I got busted for that damn note I've gotta be a little good cuz the teachers are watching over me! And NA isn't gonna be any fun for me next year if I can't skip anything & do nothing wrong! So I guess I'll go to Granby! It'll probably be a lot of fun though! I just hope I can make some decent grades! I hope ya have a good year next year + try not to get busted for anything that'll be on your record! I hope you + Jamie are always together cuz I really think he's a GREAT guy! He's nice, cute, & funny as hell! And let's try to double sometime! Remember our idea about Williamsburg! Let's try to do it! I hope you + Jamie— cont. next p.

TO: Mr. Theodore Stanford Garnett

Who literally and figuratively helped to lay the cornerstone of this institution

Who served The Norfolk Academy with equal devotion in difficult times and in good

Who, over more than four decades, taught two generations of Academy students

And who, with his genial presence and wise counsel, will be sorely missed
in the life of this school

With affection and respect

Last Will And Testament

I, Leslie Blassingham, leave my shades and 5 years to Mrs. Brown, a "term paper" to Mrs. M., Japan to Mr. Harper, and a box of Kleenex to the Senior Room.
I, Vicky Brooks, leave in much the same state as I arrived, but even more so.
I, Laurie Corner, have to take everything with me because I still need it.
I, Dashiell Rosy, plan to grow up and be famous; so, I leave to the school all my old papers, posters, and empty psychedelic paint jars to eventually be put on permanent display in the front hall of Royster.
I, Kellie Dixon, leave nothing to everyone 'cause everything is nothing and all is none and none has any and so everyone comes out a lot better off.
I, Bobo Gentry, leave as Bobo Bagbey. (I'm only teasing.)
I, Put-Put Goode, will hopefully leave N.A. in June ON SCHEDULE, leaving my Brooklyn accent in the competent hands of Leigh Banks.
I, Teddy Grant, leave my profound nuttiness to whoever wants it.
I, Patty Hughes, leave to the next editor of HORIZONS a well-worn path between the yearbook room and Mrs. Brown's office.
I, Punkin Jordan, leave my mother behind.
I, Mittie Jordan, leave to the Norfolk Academy a pound of flesh . . . how about twenty?
I, Martha Kellam, ?
I, Joan Kendrick, leave behind the memories that I don't care to take with me.
I, Linda Koch, leave an assortment of unattended "see me" notes guaranteed to fit any occasion . . . you'll love it.
I, Page Laws, do leave my Momma to fend for herself, my goalie shoes, and a battered copy of TOM JONES.
I, Melissa Maret, leave a comforting word to any rising Senior who may need it.
I, Betsy McIntyre, leave my Mother's thrilling gym classes!
I, Leighton Meredith, leave a box of smiles for the senior room.
I, Suzi Meredith, leave a bag of turtle (terta) heads to Ray and Royce Jones.
I, Kitty Rector, leave my bruised shins to whoever else can't get shinguards.
I, Laura Redwood, having so far left nothing of real value, now leave, period.
I, Anne Reed, as evidence of my most rewarding achievement, leave my ANTIGONE script and costume to posterity.
I, Marion Ritter, do hereby bequeath "gosh" to be used by anyone when in doubt of anything better to say.
I, Alice Sterling, leave my Monday mornings to anyone who has the guts to face them.
I, Lizz Sugg, having already left my better half to First Colonial, leave A PARENT'S GUIDE TO RAISING CHILDREN to Mr. Harper and my sunglasses to U.S. History.
I, Charlotte Syer, leave my weary, drained, battered, shattered brain to any rising Senior who wants it (I'm getting a new one!)
I, Jackie Wilson, leave lots of memories to Mari Haycox and a speeding ticket to Andrew.
I, Bobby Beasley, leave Mr. Vaughan my slide rule and to all French students my love and devotion for a language in which I have spent so much of my time.
I, Ralph Belton, being of sound body and, er . . . uh . . ., well, being of sound body, leave . . . wait a second . . . I still don't know how I got here; so how can I leave? Help!
I, David Bland, leave my fickle finger of fate award to Mr. Babcock and Mr. Vaughan, hoping they get more use from it than I did.
I, M. Truitt Blassingham III, leave a patch of Friday afternoon depression in the Grandy Building, and an autographed copy of WAITING FOR GODOT.
I, Chris Bonney, leave my G.A. three-year pin to Rex Bradley, my Bush soccer yells to Ray Pentecost, and my cross-country ice to Scott, our Cramer trainer.
I, Gary Britton, leave 52 juniors to Mr. Tucker to get into college.
I, Chris Costenbader, in sound mind, do leave my genuine flying angles motor-cycle goggles, red scarf, and toothpick to Mr. Jones; and I do hereby leave to the school about 3 or 4 or maybe 6 inches of rubber.
I, Purnell Delly, leave the D-M production of "The Moon" behind.

Last Will And Testament

I, David Donahoe, leave to Mr. Jones my membership to the Body Beautiful Club and to Mr. Pratt my second grade Phonics book.

I, Bobby Hume, have decided, after 11 years, that I should leave as soon as possible, and I urge my classmates to do likewise.

I, Ray Ives, leave the following to the respective departments: English -- a theme, with corrections; History -- a test, with no definite answers; Math -- an unproven proof; Science -- a Science project; Language -- IMAGES translations.

I, B-B-B-Barry Koch, leave 13 botches and a dissertation on student-teacher relationships and a little snow.

I, Joe Leary, leave my great understanding of the Spanish language to anyone who thinks he can handle it.

I, Tom Lira, came, saw, ran.

I, Pete Magee, leave my Harley-Davidson 74 chopper to Peter Fonda; my questions at Senior Speeches to Billy Wood; and my immortal Pumpkin Plymouth to Mr. Pratt.

I, Everett Martin, leave my blinding speed to Spencer Gill and Henry Stacey; the Bush League to Rolf Williams; and my book HOW I OBTAINED A THOROUGH UNDERSTANDING OF CALCULUS to Mr. Harvie.

I, Ron McLean, leave my Christchurch clip, a box of magnum 2 shells to any worthy loose goose prospect from the Junior class, and a free singing lesson to Mr. Miller for Chapel hymns.

I, Harry Moseley, leave the silver holster to my good buddy Mr. Barnett, to Mr. Vaughan for his superior knowledge, and to Mr. Mac for his awkward speech and organization.

I, Shelby Nelson, leave all my pet fungus specimens to Igor, and all my love to Byron.

I, Fish O'Reilly, leave, quietly.

I, Richard Rumble, leave my grapevine in the Wesleyan Woods to Mr. Johnston.

I, Frank Salasky, leave more edumecated than I was before.

I, David Salsbury, leave in a higher state than when I came.

I, Douglas Snyder, happily leave my Analysis and Physics grades to any aspiring Senior, but regretfully leave my kitchen maid in the hands of Mr. Barnett.

I, Ira Steingold, leave all my mathematical talents to anyone taking Geometry, and I also leave my faith in the Democratic party to anyone who supports Teddy in '72.

I, Dave Stormont, leave -- finally!

I, Stephen Summitt, leave 4,892.63 pounds of used blood, sweat, and tear-stained loose leaf folder paper to the teachers of NA.

I, Roger Thomas, leave the picture on the inside of my notebook to anybody who wants her.

I, Robert Eustis, leave 4 sweatshirts and 5 sweatpants for next year's cross-country team; one picture just past the waterhole; control of the Spanish Liberation Front -- to any deserving Spanish student; part of the MUDHOLE; and my calculus grades for anyone wanting to get into Harvard.

I, Degie Ferebee, leave all my thin neckties to Mr. Babcock; the rest of my out of style wardrobe to Ramsey (the Levy Kid), and my worn out boxers to Tommy.

I, Robert Fink, after 12 long years at the school, leave my Trig grades to anyone feeling bad about his own grades, my 2 brothers to Mr. Babcock, and a 13¢ donation to WRVC-FM. I also leave one of my arms to a tennis player with a broken arm.

I, John Frazee, leave a stack of road maps to Mary Baldwin College to anyone who needs them.

I, Charles Gardner, leave Igor with Mr. Miller and next year's wrestling team; and pass down my hatred of Norfolk Catholic to anyone who competes against them.

I, David Hirschler, leave 3 dented car fenders to the South Parking lot.

I, John Hollis, leave 1 bar of soap, 2 towels and a pair of socks to the NA Athletic Department.

The Norfolk Academy Hockey Team, under the direction of Mrs. George McIntyre, played its toughest season this year with a total of nine games. The team, with captain Laurie Corner, and managers, Jackie Wilson and Laura Redwood, opened their season very successfully by tying ODU 2-2 and beating Walsingham Academy 1-0. The hockey team next met difficulties, where despite several losses, the girls fought hard and showed great enthusiasm. Other games included teams such as Hampton Roads Academy, First Colonial, Cox, Kempsville, and Norview. The team's greatest victory came when it beat Norview 6-0. With the combined efforts of the offensive team including Laurie Corner, Melissa Maret, Charlotte Syer, Betsy McIntyre, and Adrienne Harrington, the defensive team with Nancy White, Laura Burch, Linda Koch, Suzie Meredith, Kitty Rector, and Page Laws, the team ended with a successful 2-4-3 record.

The Hockey Team was honored in having Riet Kuper, coach from the Netherlands, and the International Irish Touring Team and the United States Team play on their field on Nov. 18, 1969.

Varsity Basketball

The 1969-1970 edition of Academy round ballers planned to rely on a strong defense to offset their lack of experience. Only one player on the team had ever appeared in a varsity game, Capt. Keith Bangel. Although on paper the Bulldogs seemed to be hard pressed to record a break even season, Coach Trickler was optimistic about the team developing into a highly competitive one before the season's end. Players who carried the major playing duties for the young Bulldogs were Keith Bangel, the team's only Senior, Randy Garnett, Butch Palmer, Billy Harrison, Richard Lacouture, Hunt Harris, all Juniors, and Sophomore Rip Montague.

Varsity Baseball

Relying on strong pitching and clutch hitting, the '69 Bulldogs compiled a season record of twelve wins and three losses. The pitching staff of Bill Coppedge, Ed Early, Bill Lawler, and Randy Garnett had a combined earned run average of less than one run per game. The pitchers were backed up by the tight infield of Billy Harrison at third base, Randy Garnett at short stop, Jimmy Sellers and Ramsey Templeton at second, and Gray Eubank at first. The outfield was manned by Ed Early, Sam Compton, and Dave Gawrys. Bill Coppedge and Mac Friddell both saw considerable action as catchers.

The high point of the season came in the Tidewater Conference Tournament. Seniors Ed Early and Bill Coppedge pitched back to back one-hit shutouts and the Bulldogs repeated as Conference Champions.

With the five above starters returning for the '70 season, Coach Dave Trickler expects another successful season.

FIRST ROW: R. Montague, T. Savage, B. Burke, P. Via, D. Thomas. SECOND ROW: B. Batcheler, T. Hudgins, F. Rives, B. Hoffman, B. Lane. THIRD ROW: J. Schwartz, H. Hume, B. Burch, M. Cruser, S. Winston. FOURTH ROW: B. Palmer, B. Morecock, R. Lacouture, P. Devine, T. Bertels.

The J.V. Baseball Team, under the direction of Mr. Bill Harvie, finished the 1969 season with a 3-7 record. The team performed better, however, than the final record indicates by scoring wins of 22-3 over Carolton Oaks and 25-8 over Gill School. They also scored a 5-4 win over Norfolk Christian with a three run rally in the last inning. Losses came from Kellam, Norfolk Catholic, Virginia Beach Junior High and First Colonial.

Butch Palmer, Toy Savage, and Rip Montague handled the pitching. The rest of the infield consisted of Bob Morecock, Tom Hudgins, Jimmy Trant, and Richard Lacouture. Ray Pentecost, Bob Lane, and Peyton Via played in the outfield.

Many of these boys will move up to the varsity team next year. Mr. Harvie is confident that this team will provide a strong base for the varsity. He hopes that the program will continue to successfully prepare boys for the varsity level.

Varsity Track

With overall good ability, the 1969 team had a satisfactory season. Co-captains Claude Bain and Alan Krome led the team in scoring. Bain excelled in the 440 and broad jump and Krome ran in the 880. Records were broken in several events. Rob Eustis broke both the mile and the two-mile record. Alan Krome broke the half-mile record and Claude Bain tied the 440 record. The team ended a 5-5 season with a second place in the TCIS meet. Other runners on the team were Charlie Gardner, Joe Leary, Bobby Beasley, Keith Bangel, Ralph Belton, Billy Wood, Steve Frazier, Bill Armstrong, John Hollis, and Allen Beasley.

Norfolk Academy 7 Hayfield 14

To open the season, the Bulldogs traveled to Alexandria and the new Hayfield High School. After taking a slim 7-0 lead at half-time on a scoring toss from Lawler to Beasley, the Bulldogs played a sloppy second half and an inspired Hayfield squad fought back on a pass and short run, after sustained drives, to take a 14-7 lead and victory.

Norfolk Academy 12 Christchurch 14

For their second game, the Bulldogs traveled to Saluda and longtime rival Sea Horses. Two lucky breaks in the forms of a blocked punt and an amazing bobbled catch enabled them to score as the Bulldogs actually outplayed their opponents. Two big touchdowns, one on a rambling jaunt by Belton, were called back, and until the end of the last quarter, we had but one score on another drive by Belton. On the last play of the game, Garnett connected with Hembree on a 48-yard toss, but Belton was stopped inches short of a two-point conversion. For the first time in nine years, N.A. lost to Christchurch.

Norfolk Academy 6 Collegiate 6

For their first home game of the season, the Bulldogs finally played together as a team in surprising prep co-leaders Collegiate. The defense halted the Cougar's first drive at the one, but they still scored first. Then in the second half, the inspired Bulldogs drove back on a pass from Lawler to Bangel to tie the score; however, the rest of the game resulted in a defensive stalemate but a moral victory.

Norfolk Academy 13 Virginia Episcopal 40

Once more the Bulldogs took to the road, this time to Lynchburg and powerhouse V.E.S. Probably the best opponents the Bulldogs met all season, the Bishops proved to be too much for the Big Orange, as they scored their first three chances and held us firmly. The Bulldogs came back with a 48-yard Lawler-Bangel connection, and again with a rare 86-yard kick off return by "Runt" Harris. The Bishops put it out of reach with two more quick scores.

Norfolk Academy 39 Frederick Military 0

The Bulldogs picked a good time to come alive when they won their homecoming with Frederick. Truly showing that they were better than their record revealed, the Bulldogs seemed to score at will with Ralph Belton leading the way with three touchdown runs and 120 yards; Keith Bangel, Bill Armstrong, and Boyd Melchor each added to the victory score. Lawler had a fine day with 13 completions in 28 attempts, while the defensive secondary had 5 interceptions, three by Harris; Welton and Frazier stood out at ends.

Norfolk Academy 20 Norfolk Catholic 6

Probably the most satisfying win of the season came next for the Bulldogs as they hosted a massacre of the Crusaders from rival Catholic. Belton again led the scoring with two touchdowns and gained over a hundred yards rushing. Purnell Delly's steady gains helped the Big Orange control the game. Lawler had an unusual day making vital completions when needed. Fine defensive play was the key factor, however, as the staunch line continuously dumped the Crusaders for losses, and twice they were stopped inside the twenty on interceptions by Harris. Catholics lone score came with 16 seconds left, but by that time it was the Bulldogs all the way.

Norfolk Academy 34 Blue Ridge 8

The Bulldogs continued their winning ways when they traveled to Charlottesville and clobbered Blue Ridge. With several players injured on both squads, there was a question as to whom would be the victor, but that question was soon answered as sub Richard Lacouture shattered their defenses with two touchdowns, one on a punt return, to lead the Bulldogs to victory. Montague had a fine debut as a runner with 140 yards and a touchdown in the Victory.

Norfolk Academy 0 St. Christopher 28

For the second straight year, a Bulldog streak ended in the mud at St. Christopher's homecoming. The bigger Saints took advantage of the conditions and were content to use long drives to win as the Bulldogs' passing game was hindered by the weather. The Bulldogs had the first break on an interception by Harris to the Saints' 20 but were unable to score. From then on the Saints took over, using mammoth fullback Pratt to their advantage. Several other Academy drives were stopped and the Bulldogs were held scoreless for the only game all season.

Norfolk Academy 34 Fork Union 23

The Bulldogs remained undefeated at home as they closed the season over previously unbeaten Fork Union. The Academy always kept a safe lead, and Belton again had an outstanding performance with 134 yards rushing and a T.D. Lawler had his best day of the season, completing 8 of twelve for three touchdowns, two to Bangel and one to Beasley. Montague also scrapped for 66 yards and Magee scored on a drive. The defense recovered three fumbles and blocked a punt to ice the victory. The second half was a little sloppy as Coach Jones freely used his Senior players but they, too, did the job in their final game as the Bulldogs finished the season 4-4-1.

J.V. Football

FIRST ROW: J. Cornetta, D. Thomas, H. Robertson, S. Brown, B. Preston, H. Hume, M. Via, B. Cocke, J. Swann, D. Lonnquest, M. Stormont, B. Vaughan, F. Rives. SECOND ROW: R. Templeton, M. Harrison, B. Baker, B. Taylor, A. McIntyre, C. Barclay, B. Lane, M. Kampfmueller, A. Cistola, C. Jones, B. Andrews. ABSENT: W. Sessoms

The J.V. Team achieved a 4-3 record this year; but this does not fully show the amount of time and effort put in by the team.

The offensive line, with five veterans returning, did an outstanding job all season in opening big holes for the backs. The backfield was strong, too, with Chip Jones at Q.B., Rolfe Williams at F.B., and Tom Bertels, Al Cistola, and David Lonnquest at Halfback.

A strong asset of the team was the defense, captained by Henry Jones, and later by David Thomas, which had four shutouts during the season.

The other captains were Peyton Via and Allen Beasley.

Coach Pratt

Dear Pat,
Love Michael.

P.S. This year has been great with J.V. football and PIANCESS or however you spell it. Hope to see you this Summer. as you can tell I can't write a long note in a yearbook.

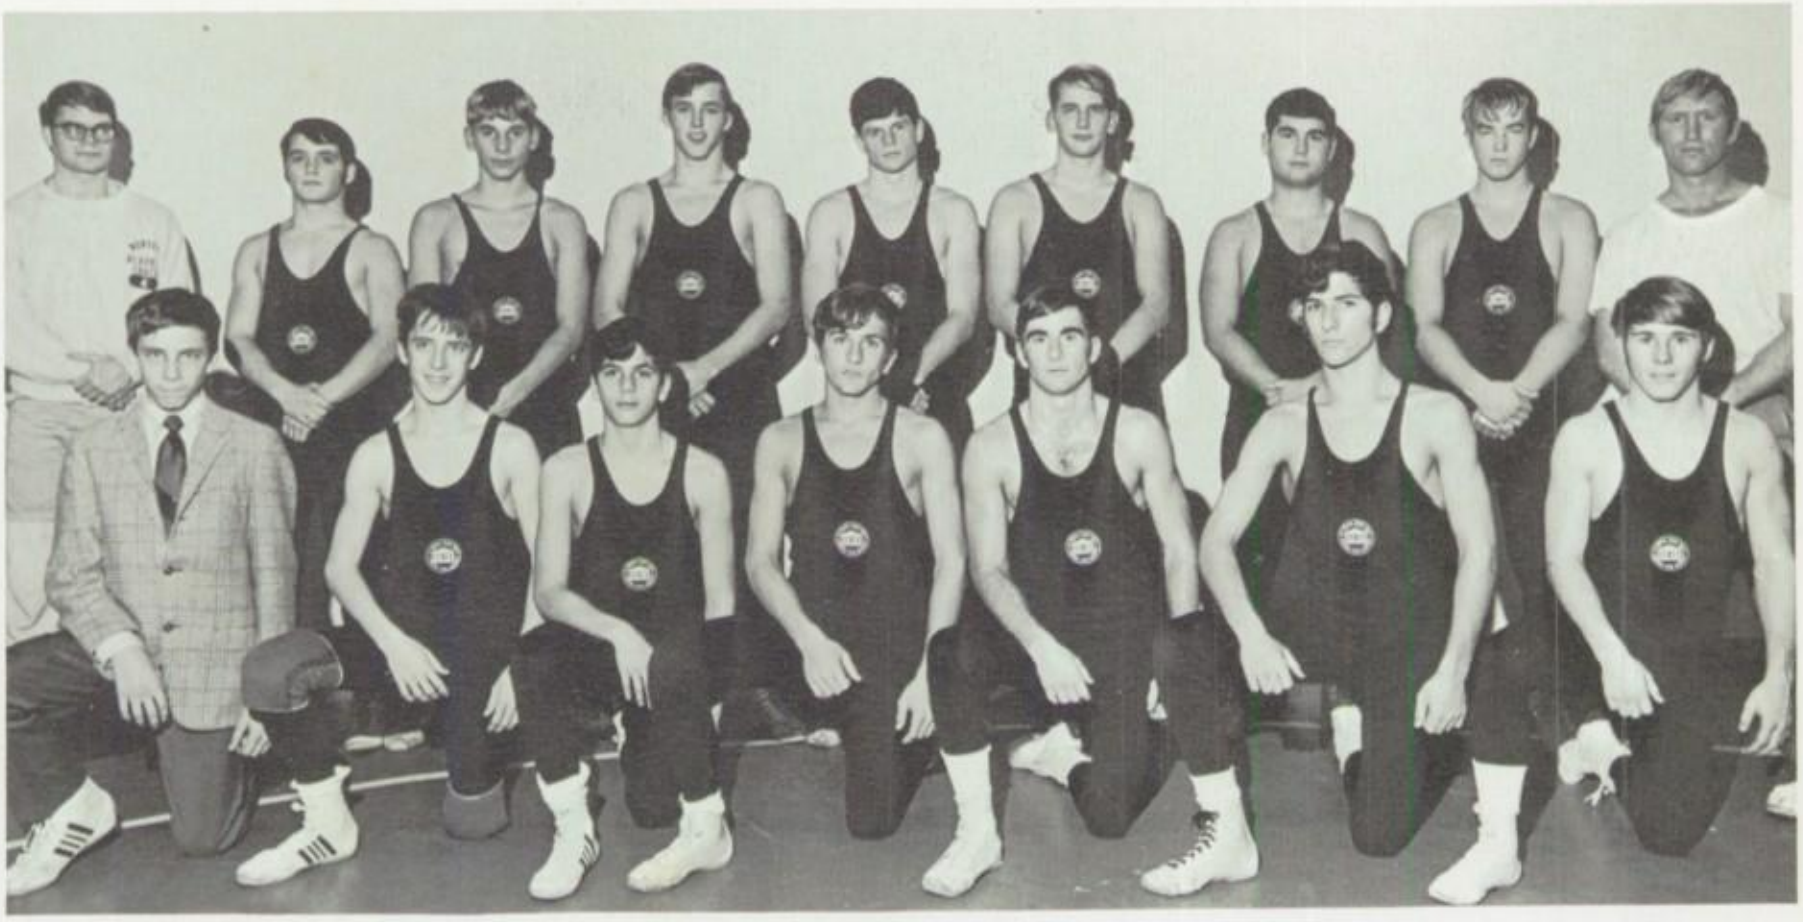
Varsity Wrestling



FRONT ROW: C. Forbes, B. Boyd, A. Sacks, E. Fink, C. Gardner, R. Fink, B. Armstrong. BACK ROW: Mr. Thiemeyer, J. Kramer, I. Armstrong, D. Donahoe, J. Hollis, H. Flitton, F. Murphy, T. Savage, Mr. Miller.

With a fine group of wrestlers returning from last year's squad, Coach Bill Miller is looking forward to another successful season. Senior co-captains David Donahoe, Robert Fink, Charles Gardner, and Billy Armstrong form the nucleus of this year's team that contains great depth in the lower weights. Graduation has left Coach Miller with a number of spots to fill in the heavier weights.

David Donahoe, voted last year's Best Wrestler and in his fifth year of varsity wrestling, will be exceptionally strong at 145 lbs. David is undefeated at this point in the season with three straight wins. Billy Armstrong, also in his fifth varsity season, should have an excellent record at 130 lbs; he presently sports a 2-1 record. Although it is uncertain whether Robert Fink will be wrestling at 115 lbs. or heavier, his 2-1 record at 137 lbs. indicates his value to the team. This is his fourth year on the Varsity Wrestling Team. Charles Gardner's two years of varsity experience have earned him a 3-0 record at 123 lbs. Others showing promise are Bobby Boyd (3-0), Ed Fink (2-1), Frank Murphy (2-1), Jeff Kramer (1-0), and Herb Flitton (3-0). The team's record presently stands at 2-1 with a 51-5 routing at Poquoson and a 27-19 win over St. Christophers. The team has the potential of being one of the best in Academy history.

Cross Country

With only 3 of last year's top 10 returning, the cross country team faced a difficult season under Coach Johnston and co-captains, Rob Eustis and Charlie Gardner. Hopes were high as the team won their first meet against Hampton Roads Academy, one of the TCIS favorites. After the first five meets, our record was a surprising 3-2. However, misfortune set in and we lost our last five meets. Rob Eustis turned in an excellent year, finishing first or second in every meet. Bobby Boyd, Ed Fink, and Rob Eaton turned in good performances as first year men and we hope that they will provide a sound nucleus for next year's team.

Get out of my depression. I'll always remember the Woody Bleeds, what a group. I love their newsong. Questions. Maybe I'll see next year, we'll have the same classes together I'd love it. I hope you still like Jamie next year.

Although young and inexperienced, this year's J.V. Basketball Team is headed toward a good season with a 3-1 record. After good wins against Hampton Roads, Frederick Military Academy, and Peninsula Catholic, the Bulldogs lagged behind against a strong Norfolk Christian team.

Through the Junior J.V. program instituted last year, Mr. Pratt has developed some fine talent. This year he relied heavily on Ken Lampert, Bobby Batcheler, Melvin Cruser, Chip Jones, John Breedlove, and Billy Brock. Mr. Pratt also had excellent reserves to call on with Will Sessoms and Tom Bertels.

The J.V.'s schedule included Norfolk Catholic, Norfolk Christian, Peninsula Catholic, F.M.A., H.R.A., Virginia Beach Junior High, Carolton Oakes, Christchurch, and a tournament in Wakefield, Va., over the Christmas holidays.

With this team the Bulldogs look forward to an excellent season under Coach Pratt.

Just remember, don't give up anything you really love and cherish, but be sure of it too. Make the right decisions, and look before you leap. Okay! Write me in camp this summer but most of all, be good. Yea '72! Can't wait!

Love ya!

This year's soccer team is looking forward to its best season in Academy history. After finishing second in the Virginia Soccer League last year, the Booters are setting their goal to be number one in the state this year. With seven starters returning, the team has a good chance of going all the way. Already their record is 2-0 as they are unscored upon in two matches against Hampton Roads and Saint Chris. The team is coached by Mr. Jones and Will Stacey.

Varsity Tennis

FIRST ROW: E. Fink, D. Hirschler, L. Steingold, D. Snyder. SECOND ROW: B. Brock, J. Levinson, I. Steingold, R. Fink, H. Harris.

The '69 tennis team in the Academy's fine tennis history compiled a 13-3 record, losing at only 5-4 to the N.C. Freshmen, State Public Champs Granby, and a team we defeated once, Thomas Jefferson.

Though there were many fine performances and wins over such rivals as undefeated St. Christopher and the Navy Plebes, the Bulldogs' finest hour came in their 8-0 shutout of archrival Woodbury Forest on the Tigers' own courts. This was not only the first defeat in three years for Woodbury but also their only shutout ever recorded.

This year's main strength was at the top with Billy Brock and most valuable player Hunt Harris at numbers 1 and 2 respectively, but the team was so well balanced down the line that the players often switched positions. The lineup usually had Andy Steingold at number 3, Ira Steingold at number 4, Jules Levinson at number 5 and Robert Fink at number 6.

As unusual as it may seem, the Bulldogs are looking forward to an even better season than this in the spring. Losing only one player in the whole top ten could set the scene for perhaps the finest team in N.A. history.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Mrs. Clara B. Gurkin typed the entire directory for the yearbook staff.

Put Goode and Mary Dashiell contributed art work.

Mr. A. A. MacConochie wrote the tribute to Mr. Garnett.

McIntosh Studio, Norfolk, Virginia, took the Senior pictures.

Mr. Stan Martin represented the American Yearbook Company.

Dear Blanca,

I usually sign on page 177 and T.V. stole my page. Thanks so much for what you wrote in my annual. It was so sweet, I almost started crying yesterday when I read it. Well anyway it is May again so that means school is almost over. I just hope I can make it through Masteron, Mc Intyre, and EXAMS. This year has gone by so fast that I can hardly believe it. It seems like only yesterday that we had one of our summer talk sessions on Peyton. You really liked him so much. I wanted to help you but he considered Tyler "geographically undesirable." It doesn't matter now since you got James. He is probably nicer than Peyton anyway. Maybe sometime you will be able to talk sense into Alan and make him get off drugs. Also we have got to keep our eyes on Sarah. She keeps telling me how she is going to take drugs and end her life. She is so spoiled over B.C. that it is unbelievable. She should stick with Jack since he is the best. I'll never forget how crazy she goes whenever she sees B.C. You have been one of my very best and closest friends and always will be. Thanks for helping me with all my problems. I'll never forget how mad you used to get at me for being mean to Michael. Well I hope you are proud of us now for getting along so well. You have really been a great friend. You always help me and also you always follow to Vill-pres. to the library. Remember all those football + basketball games we went to? They were so much fun. We will have to do it next year too. You used to get mad at everyone except Michael and I. That made us feel so good. I hope you will never get mad at us and that I'll always be one of your good friends. I will never forget our "Love" and "Hate" lists. They were really fun. I'm glad we were able to get us good and bad moods together. I sure hope you come back to great NA next year cuz I would sure miss you. You should come back so we can RAISE HELL together. We can do some really fun stuff like smoke in the bathroom, skip study hall, go to games, cut people, etc. We'll have to help reading Syl's letters together so we can cut them. Remember when we stayed there for the Hayfield game? Remember Dok and Jay? Well there is so much to remember and when we get out of this prison I hope we have alot more memories together. Stay as great as you! We'll have to get together this summer. Be good, Keep the Faith and Raise Hell!

Love ya always,
Tal

Pepsi's got a lot to give

There's a new national pastime: living, and making every second count. Pepsi's part of it all, with the energy to let you live big, and a taste that's bigger than life. Pepsi-Cola...it's got a lot to give.

PAT,
I can't stand the word PLANCE anymore than DOLE so I resign yours w/PAT. Clothes (person but PLANCE!!!!)
It has really been great knowing you this year, I mean it. From sneaking out to go get w/Jen I think you have really been (what's the word) (I hate to use great or fantastic or what but ya know what I mean). I thought it was Jennie Mae S... when you first liked Dan and Hany got put down. I cried all night for them. And now you have Jen so told on them. He is really a good guy (you treated out for those long nights at Sandbridge) But Jamie B.A. he likes you a lot, will take a good "provider" and gentle you out all the time, but he really loves you a lot. P.S. most studley. He will never cheat on you so you're safe (Are you sure?). Keep it up. I know you can't read this and you are now shaking your head and smiling but try to read it again. I get it "split".
Love ya
Mark

Dear Pat,

Well, it looks like we're tired thru one more year. Only 2 more to go and we'll be out forever. We've even made it thru dancing and all those retarded exams.

It's really been great being in some of your classes and going to dances every week. I've really enjoyed our little talks and trots downtown. I think Cathy & Linda think we've lost our minds but that's O.K.

Dear Hance,

God, what can I say to you, my dear friend I kept it sweet was great this year a cheering. We'll try again next year I'm sure because we never give up. It's been really weird this year though, hasn't it! Again, we've both had our fair share of boys who dish out our fair share of problems. I can't believe Nf and Tommy have finally come to an end, but maybe not, I don't know because life is just so damn confusing. I'm so philosophical, it's unreal. We've had all of our classes together which has been just fantas- tic. In geometry "What time is it?" and me getting mad at you, Kate and Esa. Biology class, well, look what we've done. We've given Mrs Parker such a hard time she had to retire. In German, Deutsch, and the beautiful Fraulein, well, she's just t-o-o m-u-c-h altogether. In Masterson's class, shooting up, selling our fix and smoking. Or, should I say the dirty word, Marijuana, wally pens and pencils. I missed out in your class, your unfortunate girl. Yeah, we sure have had a good time together, me and you. I hope these times will continue to happen. You've helped me so many times out of my depression, and oh, just you being around, helps me the other good times we've had, either - like goofing off in study hall (remember when Linda Anne Nickel wouldn't pass your note) and all our Veglable names, and smoking in English (and study hall for real!) and going to the Pualuri at 3 A.M. for steak, corn, and peas! Don't forget

© or When you liked Beacon or When we both liked Vernon - or when I went out of my mind over Billy Armstrong. (You talked to him, too! Remember when we went to Foreman Field and watched the eclipse? But before we went your dad made us those little hole things and I kept on looking at the sun any way and everybody was screaming at me to stop! I haven't gone blind yet but some day, blindness will strike me in a flash and I will regret my actions. (right, Dale) Well, I'd better go now and study my Deutsch, but I know you can think of millions of more crazy things we've done - and I'm so glad you're not leaving next year like all the other insane people we know. Keep smilin - Keep writing and sending that food like you did last year - and keep the faith! Ra

One more year in this hellhole for me and two for you (sucker). This year was plagued by term papers, classes, parents, teachers, demerits, restrictions "and other implements of destruction" (Ala Dutkis). Next year there will be more term papers, more classes, parents will eliminated in an S.D.S. raid (led by Nash), and so will teachers. This will automatically take care of demerits and restrictions leaving only the other implements of destruction." Last year highlights this year was highlighted by excessive skipping (officially known as "absence from an assigned activity"), Sandbridge, midnight (plus 2 hours) rides, Cox's Dennis (up) Spunk laughs, the boat ramp, smoking in bathrooms, cutting who forget to take aspirin, and other assorted cretinism.

don't get busted anymore! I hope me and Dickson don't, either! But we probably will! God- I don't believe how long this is! If we both go to summer school, I hope it's at the same place! We gotta raise a lot of hell when we take Driver's Ed at the base. Right now I'm sure I'll flunk Geometry and English. So I'll be busy in summer school! Remember all those times we hated ourselves for something we did concerning Jamie or Dickson? Well - I guess this is long enough + I ought to leave room for somebody else to sign so I'll see ya! I hope we'll always be good friends cuz you're a great friend to have.

Love always,
Kate

REMEMBER TO RAISE HELL!

Dear Pat,

Hey, well this sure has been some year - but it's been great! Remember all our silly names - Pearce, Pisa, Dara, Heidi - etc... Cheering was alot of fun - thanks for all the rides home - remember one time with Bill & Billy Wood & then another w/ Mr. Montague (sp.!) - cute! Then there's our conversations about our Maury friends - nuh! You & Lachmont & me & Taylor - And how about good old Biology class - & could have never made it through class if you didn't sit in front of me!!! There are all those Sorority meetings we've missed - & you & me - the Ballet Jabers! Have a great summer & lets get together alot! luv ya!

Lisa

Dear Blance,
Well-where should I start! I haven't ever hung around with you before this year but now I have and we have had so much fun! You are the craziest kid I ever saw and you are great because of it! Your whole family is really fantastic! I feel solry for your mom, though, she probably went to the store especially when she knew it was coming because I used to eat ya'll out of house and home! I must have had at least 10 boxes of pop-tarts! And 5 rolls of cookie dough! But that's not all! I could practically list the whole grocery store! But forget food - I'm already fat enough as it is and I have to go on a diet. Remember all the great times we had cheering? Like the John Yates (was that it?) game when it was pouring down rain and Sarah was yellin at us and we were doing all this dumb stuff!! Sheer! And all those Monday practices we had when we would go out of our minds! What about all our great daredevil car adventures! I have never been as scared as I was the night we went to Cabbages! And don't forget the night a long time ago when I cried for an hour about Billy! Alot has happened since then (I hope!!) you like Jamie and I'm glad you do. I mean it Pat - he is a really nice guy and I hope you and him will stay together! Hey - don't forget (p9.195)
